Property Information

Tucked in the hills of Rancho Santa Fe this outstanding custom home is ready for you to settle into. Designed by well-known architect Deana Gillespie, the spaces are open and gracious with a wonderful flow. Travertine, marble, and granite are warmed by rich reclaimed oak. Hidden in the Groves the property enjoys absolute quiet and security. A recent remodel of the kitchen, pool and all the baths has made this wildly well maintained home sparkle. The house is in the covenant school district, and the Groves has tennis courts for your weekly game. The house has a southern exposure so it is always sunny and light. New flooring throughout - travertine, tumbled marble, reclaimed oak, new carpeting. The pool was completely redone with slate and a new roof was installed. Thoughtful details such as automatic closet lights and surround sound equipment and speakers make this home immensely livable. This home is located within the renowned Rancho Santa Fe School District. Click on the following links for school information and state ranking.
